There being a finding/verdict of ☒ GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
MAIL FRAUD; AIDING AND ABETTING in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1341, 2 as charged in Counts 1-8 of the Information and SUBSCRIBING TO FALSE TAX RETURN in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7206(1) as charged in Count 9 of the Information.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

The defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $900, which is due immediately.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $842,902.03, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $842,902.03 to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

A partial payment of $10,000 shall be paid immediately. Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $500 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Haresh Majmundar, is hereby committed on Counts 1 through 9 of the 9-Count Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 12 months and 1 day. This term consists of 12 months and 1 day on each of Counts 1 through 9, all to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. *This term consists of three years on each of Counts 1 through 8 and one year on Count 9*, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall comply with the immigration rules and regulations of the United States, and if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States illegally. The defendant is not required to report to the Probation Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of any reentry to the United States during the period of Court-ordered supervision, the defendant shall report for instructions to the United States Probation Office, located at the United States Courthouse, 411 West Fourth Street, Suite 4170, Santa Ana, California 92701;
4. The defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes owed for the years of conviction; and shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes during the period of community supervision. Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order;
5. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation; and
6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from his person.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on November 19, 2008. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at: United States Courthouse, 411 West Fourth Street, Santa Ana, California 92701.

The Court recommends that the defendant be housed in a low risk Southern California institution to facilitate visitation with family, friends and loved ones.

Bond is exonerated upon surrender.
